

Advisor

Tom Sieniewicz

Partner, NBBJ Design

Tom Sieniewicz is a Partner at NBBJ Design, a U.S. Based global architecture and design firm. Throughout his career, Tom has instilled his passion for people and community in his work for leading businesses, institutions, and civic organizations throughout the United States. His recent projects include the Shapiro Center for Cardiovascular Medicine and the Hale at Brigham and Women's Hospital, the Greater Boston Food Bank's Yawkey Distribution Facility, and Massachusetts General Hospital's Lunder Building, for which he has won numerous industry awards, including the National Healthcare Design Award from the AIA Academy of Architecture for Health.

Tom is an architect, city planner, and licensed construction supervisor through the Massachusetts State Board of Building Regulations and Standards. He is actively involved in community affairs in the Boston area, where he serves on the City of Cambridge Planning Board and is the former chair of City of Cambridge Board of Zoning Appeals. He is also the past-president of the Charles River Watershed Association.

Tom joined the Greater Boston Food Bank's Board of Advisors in 2017.

Tom holds a Bachelor of Fine Arts from Rhode Island School of Design and a Master of Architecture from Harvard University Graduate School of Design.