FOOD BANK

2014 Annual Report

ONE MEAL A DAY.

Everyone has a role in ending hunger in our community.®

Leadership Message

Dear Friends and Supporters,

We want to begin by thanking each of you for your continued dedication. Fiscal year 2014 was a record breaking year at The Greater Boston Food Bank (GBFB). Just over 51 million pounds of nutritious food was distributed throughout eastern Massachusetts – enough for 43 million meals. While this is record breaking for GBFB, it's still not enough to End Hunger Here.

More neighbors in our communities are struggling and, for many, the situation is so dire that they are forced to make difficult decisions on a regular basis. Can you imagine deciding between paying for groceries and rent or mortgage, between filling a critical prescription and dinner, or between paying heating and electric bills and feeding your family? As these trade-offs are made, overall health and wellbeing are also sacrificed.

During fiscal year 2014, GBFB expanded in areas that we are proud of and that will continue to be a priority. Of the 51 million pounds of food distributed, over 13 million was fresh produce. And, some of that produce was purchased right in Massachusetts from local farmers, manufacturers and other vendor partners. Thanks to GBFB's Registered Dieticians who evaluate each product, 81% of our total inventory met the highest nutritional standards.

Beyond food distribution, we also consider it our responsibility to be engaged community members. Through various nutrition programs, the GBFB Nutrition Team spent a great deal of time in the communities we serve providing nutrition education and tips on how to prepare different types of food. We focused on seniors by establishing the Senior Hunger Initiative and by helping them to complete and submit SNAP applications so they can benefit from this resource. The Child Hunger Initiative was also established to continue our focus on the one in four children at risk of hunger in eastern Massachusetts. And, when Revere was hit by a tornado, GBFB partnered with the Red Cross to provide an emergency food distribution to help more than 200 families who lost their homes.

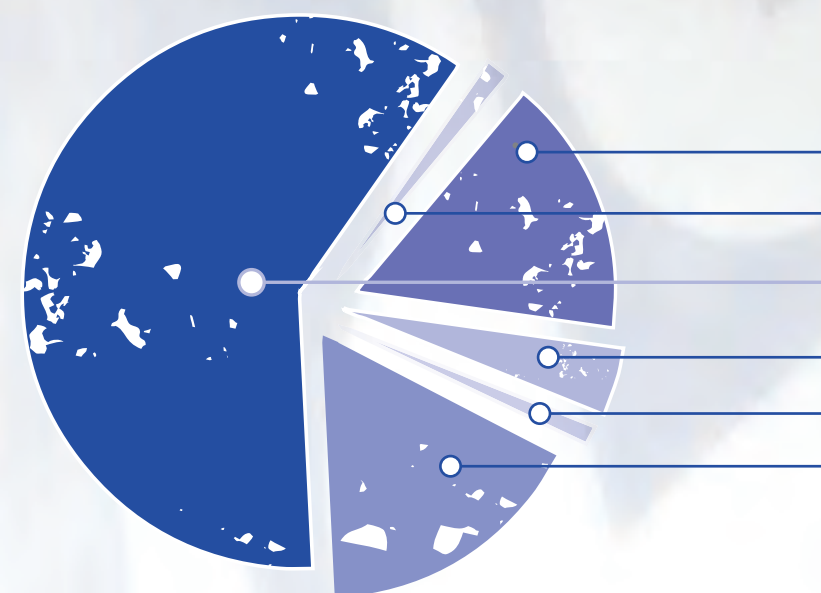

Over the next fiscal year and beyond, we are committed to continuing to work toward our strategic objective of providing One Meal A Day to everyone in need in eastern Massachusetts. Our 2014 and future accomplishments are only possible because of our dedicated friends, partners, volunteers, and supporters, like you. Together, we have made a difference in the lives of over half a million people in need. Our vision is a hunger-free Massachusetts and, together, we can End Hunger Here.

Sincerely,

Catherine D'Amato
President and CEO

Woody Bradford
Board Chair

43 Millions Meals Closer to ONE MEAL A DAY

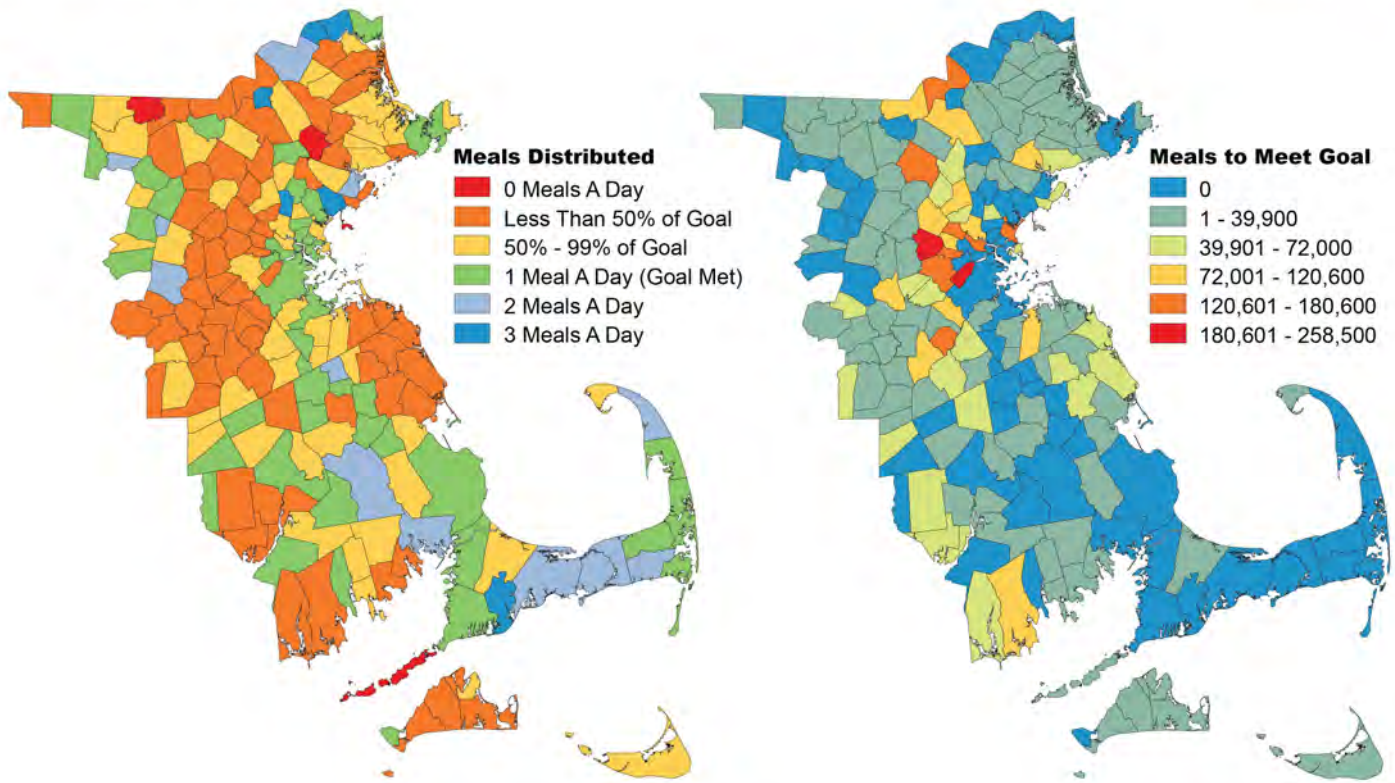

At The Greater Boston Food Bank (GBFB), Team GBFB works diligently and passionately to reach fundraising, food acquisition and food distribution goals. Each year, goals are carefully set using data that GBFB mines and tracks through mapping technologies to inform how much food should be distributed where.

The 2014 distribution goal was 48 million pounds of food or 40 million meals, and GBFB closed the year distributing just over 51 million pounds – 43 million meals. EXCEEDING a goal is reason to pause and celebrate. Yet, those 3 million pounds represent an additional 2,500,000 meals – meals our neighbors need to avoid hunger. EXCEEDING our goal is also reason to pause and remember that we still have a great deal of work to do. Progress has been made, and continued progress will be critical to reach our strategic objective of providing One Meal A Day to everyone in need in eastern Massachusetts.

A recent study of GBFB's member agencies and clients revealed what hunger in eastern Massachusetts looks like, and how extensive the work ahead is:

- 64% of GBFB's member agencies reported an increase in number of clients served.
- 91% of GBFB's member agencies said a decrease in food received from GBFB would have a major effect on their ability to serve clients.
- About a third of the households receiving food assistance have at least one child younger than 18 years of age.
- Half of those served belong to the most vulnerable age groups of children and seniors, where proper nutrition is vital.
- 72% of households need to use a food pantry on a regular basis to have enough to eat.

As a result, many clients are forced to make difficult decisions that put overall health and wellbeing at risk:

- 61% had to choose between food and utilities (heat and electricity).
- 60% had to choose between food and rent/mortgage payments.
- 60% had to choose between food and medical care.
- 31% had to choose between food and education.

Hunger is a rising and silent epidemic in eastern Massachusetts. We will continue to carefully track the need and operate efficiently so we can help as many people in need as possible. We are focused on our strategic objective of providing One Meal A Day to everyone in need and plans are already underway to reach 60 million pounds, or 50,000,000 meals, in the next few years. It's an ambitious goal, but we know that with continued community support, we can End Hunger Here.

Cross Docks

Cross docks are a collaboration between The Greater Boston Food Bank and cross dock location partners to distribute food to member agencies located too far from GBFB to make regular pick-ups at our Boston warehouse. GBFB trucks deliver food to six cross dock locations in eastern, Massachusetts—Bridgewater, Framingham, Harwich, New Bedford, Peabody, and Plymouth—where we work with our location hosts to unload and distribute food to our member agencies served by the cross dock location.

Cross docking is one of many initiatives that allows GBFB to operate more efficiently, while reaching more people. The 60 cross dock deliveries made each month allow us to reach agencies within communities that otherwise might not be able to access food from GBFB. They also increase efficiency for our member agencies by addressing the cost and strain of vehicle capacity, long drives, fuel costs, and proper refrigeration equipment.

With the support of our partners, GBFB distributed more than 4 million pounds of food—more than 3.4 million meals—to our agencies served by our cross dock locations. GBFB is grateful to our partners that go above and beyond to help us expand our capacity to provide nutritious food to more people in need. These efforts will help us reach our strategic objective of providing One Meal A Day to everyone in need in eastern Massachusetts.

Revere Disaster Relief

In 2012, The Greater Boston Food Bank mobilized in support of our sister food banks in Connecticut, New York, and New Jersey that were affected by Hurricane Sandy. This year, our emergency response efforts were needed much closer to home.

In August 2014, Revere, Massachusetts was hit by a tornado that left many homes in ruin, and many people without food. The Greater Boston Food Bank supported the disaster relief efforts with an emergency food distribution in Revere. GBFB team members and volunteers worked together to deliver and distribute fresh produce, water, and canned goods to over 200 people, helping to alleviate some of the burden from this natural disaster. Beyond our mission to End Hunger Here in eastern, Massachusetts, we also believe it is our responsibility to support our neighbors whenever there is a need.

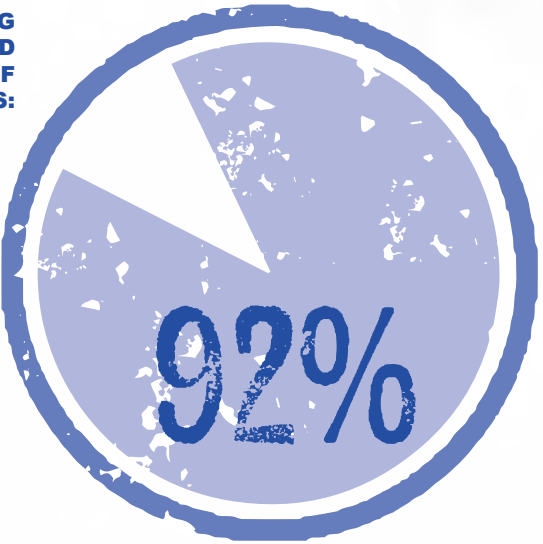

GBFB distributes enough food through our network of member hunger-relief agencies within 190 cities and towns from Cape Ann to Cape Cod to serve over half a million people.

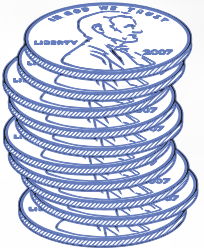

Fundraising

Each year, we are grateful to our longtime supporters and those new to GBFB. Through our relationships in the food industry, GBFB can stretch the value of every dollar donated. Each dollar allows us to buy enough food for three nutritious meals and provides the flexibility to fill our inventory in specific areas.

Food Is Medicine

In September 2014, more than 200 guests gathered at The Greater Boston Food Bank for the second annual Food is Medicine fundraiser to learn more about our mission to End Hunger Here. Food is Medicine is an awareness campaign and fundraising initiative established by Dr. Allen Hamdan, Vice Chairman of the Department of Surgery at Beth Israel Deaconess Medical Center (BIDMC), who is a firm advocate of the direct correlation between healthy food and healthy lives.

Throughout the evening, attendees heard from Dr. Hamdan, Dr. Kevin Tabb, Dr. Elliot L. Chaikof, and Catherine D'Amato, GBFB's President and CEO, who all spoke to the relationship between hunger and health issues like diabetes, cardiovascular disease, and obesity.

Thanks to Dr. Hamdan's commitment to End Hunger Here, the evening was a great success, doubling in size and funds raised. Through the generosity of Dr. Hamdan and his guests, enough was raised to provide 135,000 nutritious meals to those in need in eastern Massachusetts.

THANK YOU.

The Harvesters Circle is a generous group of donors who make an annual financial contribution of $1,000 or more to The Greater Boston Food Bank in support of our operations and special programs. Their commitment to GBFB provides a strong foundation of support that we rely on each year. In addition to their financial commitment, Harvesters Circle donors get together regularly to volunteer on-site to sort food and off-site to distribute food at one of our 40 program sites. During school breaks, it becomes a family affair, as Harvester Circle members and their children participate in our Kids Who Care program by bagging and boxing food for those in need in eastern, Massachusetts. During fiscal year 2014, this dedicated group provided over 2.8 million meals to those in need! We are grateful for the impactful role Harvester Circle donors play in helping to End Hunger Here.
