

Advisor

Carol F. Anderson

Retired, HarbourVest Partners, LLC

Carol served on The Greater Boston Food Bank Board of Directors from 2009 to 2017, prior to joining the Board of Advisors in 2017. Food insecurity is a major concern of hers both in Eastern Massachusetts and in Vermont, where she was the founder of a food pantry which serves several small rural communities.

Carol currently serves as the Chairman of the Board of Directors of Beth Israel Deaconess Medical Center. She is also a Director of the Risk Management Foundation associated with CRICO, the captive, off-shore insurance company that provides medical malpractice and other types of insurance to Harvard-affiliated teaching hospitals and related entities.

Carol attended Simmons College, and received her MBA from Boston University.
