

Advisor

Eileen M. Pyne

Retired, Senior HR & Administration Executive, Fidelity Investments

Eileen Pyne spent her career serving in various leadership and human resources positions. For over two decades, she worked for Fidelity Investments, a diversified financial services firm headquartered in Boston. At Fidelity she held a number of roles including executive vice president of Corporate Human Resources where she led the Human Resources Function and was the executive in charge of Fidelity's Compensation Committee; managing director at one of Fidelity's subsidiaries, Devonshire Investors, where she provided business services across a portfolio of early and middle stage companies; and early in her career at Fidelity, she held numerous human resources positions working in the company's financial services businesses. Additionally, she had the opportunity to serve on a variety of boards in the Devonshire portfolio.

Prior to joining Fidelity, Eileen held senior-level human resources roles at Dun & Bradstreet Software Services, Inc., and Bolt Beranek and Newman, Inc. She also served as a teacher and assistant dean of students at The Westminster School.

Eileen joined the Greater Boston Food Bank's Board of Advisors in 2017.

Eileen received her bachelor's degree from Bowdoin College and her master's from Harvard University.

70 South Bay Avenue • Boston, MA 02118 • Tel: 617.427.5200 • Fax: 617.427.0146 • GBFB.org