

Advisor

Mark Friedman Retired

Mark Friedman is currently retired. He has worked in various marketing roles at Corporate Turnaround, Medical Economics, Warner Lambert, and Whitehall Robins in the past.

Mark is a volunteer for Jewish Community Relations Council of Greater Boston, Inc., Brookline High School 21st Century Fund, Inc., and volunteers as a tutor at the Ohrenberger School in West Roxbury. Mark has served on several boards and has shared that he, “isn’t afraid of making an ask.” Also, Mark is well connected to Boston’s Jewish community and has expressed interest in making community connections for GBFB. Mark joined the Greater Boston Food Bank’s Board of Advisors in October 2020.

Mark’s wife, Valerie Friedman, is a principal at Bracebridge Capital. Mark graduated from the University of Pennsylvania and received an M.B.A. from the University of Chicago.