Robert Gault

Retired Lawyer, Mintz, Levin, Cohn, Ferris, Glovsky, and Popeo

Robert Gault is a retired lawyer, having served in a federal law clerkship and then practiced law with the firm of Mintz, Levin, Cohn, Ferris, Glovsky and Popeo from 1973 to 2014, and is now a Member Emeritus. He specialized in civil litigation and for many years chaired Mintz Levin's Employment, Labor & Benefits department.

Robert has been affiliated with numerous charitable organizations, including serving on the Board of Directors of Greater Boston Legal Services and the Greater Boston Food Bank, each for approximately ten years, and was the GBFB's primary legal counsel for many years. He also has volunteered for the MSPCA.

Robert graduated from Williams College and the University of Michigan Law School.
