

Emeriti Board

Vicary Graham

Chair, BNY Mellon New England and President for Wealth Management

Vicary M. Graham is Chair of BNY Mellon New England and President for Wealth Management in New England. In this role, she manages the investment management, wealth planning, and private banking services for individuals, entrepreneurs, family business owners, endowments and foundations for offices in Boston and Providence. Vicary is a member of BNY Mellon Wealth Management's Operating Committee.

During her career with the firm, Vicary has directed both regional and national investment and wealth management businesses along with private banking services for high net worth individuals. She launched The Boston Company's national jumbo mortgage business. Vicary served as director of Mellon Trust of New England, N.A., The Boston Company, Inc. and on the Committee for Public Responsibility, the firm's charitable program in New England. Vicary is a member of BNY Mellon's Women's Initiatives Network and a past vice chair of BNY Mellon Wealth Management's Diversity Council.

Vicary is a past-chair of the Board of the Greater Boston Food Bank and joined the Emeriti Board in 2018.

Vicary received her bachelor's degree from Skidmore College and serves on its President's Advisory Council.