

A diverse group of smiling business professionals in a crowd. The image features several women in professional attire, including blazers and blouses, looking towards the camera with positive expressions. The background is filled with more people, creating a sense of a large, inclusive group.

Celebrating 10 years of Women Fighting Hunger.

Ten years ago, Gail Graham, Pam Norley, Minnie Joung and other women from Fidelity had the idea of organizing a breakfast to support and engage women in helping to end hunger for our neighbors in need. Soon these women were joined by other women from BNY Mellon, Credit Suisse, Eaton Vance, State Street, and UBS, adding more voices to such a profound commitment to end hunger.

This year, by presenting our Founders Award to Fidelity and recognizing other women such as Carol Anderson, Susan Black, Vicary Graham, and Sharyn Neble, we honor the legacy of these women.

Just as importantly, we highlight the impact of helping women and their families to thrive in our community. Over the last ten years, Women Fighting Hunger has provided over 3.1 million meals to local families.

You're invited.
