Quincy Miller

President and Vice Chairman, Eastern Bank

Quincy Miller is the President and Vice Chairman of Eastern Bank, the largest and oldest mutual bank in the United States. He spends his time focused on helping to lead the overall strategic direction of Eastern, which has served its customers, colleagues and communities for nearly 200 years.

Quincy is the former President of Citizens Bank, Massachusetts, and President of its Business Banking division. The foundation of his career is rooted in consumer banking where he developed his passion for “leading from the front line” ensuring that his perspective is guided by the colleagues closest to the customer.

The Boston Business Journal in 2012, recognized Quincy as a “40 under 40” honoree and again in 2015 as “16 Business Executives to watch in 2016”. Quincy is also an inaugural member of the GK100 “most influential people of color in Boston” by Get Konnected.

Quincy is a graduate of Lafayette College, where he earned a B.A. in Economics and Business, and of the Consumer Bankers Association’s Graduate School of Retail Bank Management. Quincy Serves on Lafayette’s Trustee Financial Policy Committee and its McDonogh Diversity Committee.
