

Emeriti Board

Rev. Howard McLendon

Reverend Howard McLendon served as a Campus Minister at Boston College from 1992 until 2016. In this position he worked in the Office of the Interfaith Campus Minister facilitating interfaith and ecumenical programming, along with spiritual formation opportunities for the non-Catholic, major historic religious transitions represented by the student body.

Howard additionally served as the President of the American Baptist Churches of Massachusetts from 2014-2016. He further served as the Pastor of the Massachusetts Avenue Baptist Church for 21 years.

Howard received his Bachelor of Science in Finance from Boston College's Carroll School of Management before receiving his Master of Divinity in Psychology and Pastoral Care from Interdenominational Theological Center. He later went on to receive his Doctor of Ministry from Northern Baptist Theological Seminary.
