

Emeriti Board

Marc Boesch

Marc Boesch started with The TJX Companies, Inc. in 2008 to lead the transformation of the global sourcing and procurement function. In 2012, he assumed responsibility for the workplace services team, first in the US, then globally. The global continuous improvement (Lean Six Sigma) team joined the group in 2014. Marc now acts as Senior Vice President of Global Business Services for The TJX Companies, Inc.

Marc earned his Master in Hospitality Management from Cornell – ESSEC in Paris, France and his Master of Business Administration from the F. W. Olin School of Graduate Management in Wellesley, MA. He served as a Board member of the Sodexo Foundation “Stop Hunger” as well as The Greater Boston Food Bank. He now sits on The Greater Boston Food Bank’s Emeriti Board and recently became the TJX PRIDE Associate Resource Group Executive Sponsor. He is married with three children. He enjoys an active lifestyle engaging in many sports, cooking, traveling and enjoying his family.

70 South Bay Avenue • Boston, MA 02118 • Tel: 617.427.5200 • Fax: 617.427.0146 •
GBFB.org