

Emeriti Board

Robert Gault

Robert Gault is a retired lawyer, having served in a federal law clerkship and then practiced with the firm of Mintz Levin from 1973 to 2014 and is now a member emeritus. He specialized in civil litigation and for many years chaired Mintz Levin's Employment, Labor and Benefits Department.

Robert has been affiliated with numerous charitable organizations, including having served on the board of directors of Greater Boston Legal Services and The Greater Boston Food Bank for approximately ten years. He also has volunteered with the MSPCA. He served as The Greater Boston Food Bank's primary legal counsel for many years and joined the Emeriti Board at its foundation.

Robert is a graduate of Williams College and the University of Michigan Law School.
