Daniel Levin

Director and Tax Council, Baupost Group, L.L.C.

Daniel (Dan) Levin is Director and Tax Counsel at The Baupost Group, L.L.C., a Boston-based investment management firm, where he advises on the tax and legal aspects of investment transactions. In addition to his regular responsibilities, Dan serves as a member of the Baupost Foundation Advisory Board, a group of employees examining, and recommending for grants, Boston-area organizations with meaningful impact in key areas of philanthropic need. Since joining the group in 2016, Dan has focused his efforts on issues of food insecurity and housing insecurity.

Prior to joining Baupost, Dan was an associate in the Tax & Benefits department at Ropes & Gray LLP in Boston and is a graduate of Boston University School of Law (JD '09, LL.M. '10). He is currently a member of the Board of Trustees and Treasurer of Temple Shir Tikvah in Winchester and is a former Co-Chair of the Massachusetts LGBTQ Bar Association.
