

Eileen Pyne

Member, Board of Directors Vice Chair, Compensation Committee

Eileen Pyne spent her career serving in various senior leadership and human resources roles. For over two decades, Eileen worked for Fidelity Investments, a diversified financial services firm headquartered in Boston. At Fidelity, she held a number of roles including Executive Vice President of Corporate Human Resources, leading the human resources function for the firm and acting as executive-in-charge of Fidelity's Compensation Committee and Managing Director of Devonshire Investors, a Fidelity subsidiary, where she provided business services across a portfolio of early and middle-stage companies. Earlier in her tenure, she held a variety of other human resources positions in the company's financial services businesses. Additionally, she had the opportunity to serve as a member of the Board of Directors for a number of the operating companies in the Devonshire portfolio.

Prior to joining Fidelity, Eileen held senior-level human resources roles at Dun & Bradstreet Software Services, Inc., and Bolt Beranek and Newman, Inc. She also served as a teacher and Assistant Dean of students at the Westminster School.

Eileen became a member of the Board of Directors in 2022, having previously served the Greater Boston Food Bank as a member of the Board of Advisors.

Eileen received her Bachelor's Degree from Bowdoin College and her Master's from Harvard University.
