Member, Audit and Compliance Committee

Gordon Reid currently serves as President of Stop & Shop, a regional chain of supermarkets in the northeastern US and a great local brand of the multi-national firm, Ahold Delhaize USA. Founded in 1914, Stop & Shop now has more than 400 stores across the Northeast and employs nearly 60,000 associates. Prior to joining Stop & Shop, Gordon served as President of Giant Food and lead the brand to the number one market share position in each of its local markets. Under his leadership, the company made healthy eating easier and affordable, while also transforming the shopping experience with the customer top of mind and growing home delivery.

Gordon has more than 35 years of international retail experience. Before joining Giant Food, he worked as CEO of China and Deputy Regional Director of North Asia for the Dairy Farm Group in Hong Kong. Previously, he spent time at Tesco in various leadership roles and worked in a variety of countries such as Hungary, India and China. He also previously worked at Boots in the United Kingdom for 15 years, where he held general management roles, and at A.S. Watson Group spending time in Hong Kong, Taiwan and South Korea.

Gordon is active in the community and serves as a member of the USO Washington-Baltimore Executive Board and a Board member of The Partnership for a Healthier America. Gordon joined the Board of Directors of the Greater Boston Food Bank in January 2020.

Gordon holds a Bachelor of Science in Pharmacy from Heriot-Watt University and a Master of Business Administration from Nottingham University Business School.
