

Ellen Grody

Member, Board of Advisors

Ellen Grody is a Senior Program Manager, Oncology Precision and Translational Medicine, at Takeda Pharmaceuticals. Prior to Takeda, Ellen held roles at Partners Healthcare/Brigham and Women's Hospital and Brandeis University.

Ms. Grody is an active non-profit volunteer and was involved with the Greater Boston Food Bank as a member of the Innovative Development Council prior to her appointment to the Board of Advisors in May 2024. She is the Vice President of the local chapter of the League of Women Voters and a Board member of the West Suburban YMCA. Ellen also fosters rescue dogs from Last Hope K9, a dog rescue organization. She is committed to improving the state of the world through continuous improvement.

Ellen earned a Bachelor's degree from Northwestern University, an MBA from The Wharton School at the University of Pennsylvania, and a Master's degree from Brandeis University. She also holds a Project Management Professional (PMP) certification from the Project Management Institute.