

Ken Rinaldi

Member, Board of Directors
Member, Strategic Planning Committee

Ken Rinaldi is the President of Albertsons Companies Shaw's and Star Market division based in West Bridgewater, Massachusetts. With 40 years of grocery experience, he is an accomplished leader with deep knowledge of the New England market.

As President, Ken leads a division of two of the most historic grocery banners in the United States. Shaw's was founded before the Civil War in 1860, and Star Markets opened its first store more than a century ago in 1915. Combined, the division employs 19,000 associates across 146 stores serving customers in Massachusetts, Maine, New Hampshire, Rhode Island and Vermont.

Ken's career started at Star Market, bagging groceries and pushing carriages when he was in high school. Ken is a people-centric leader with a strong track record of success, and brings a wealth of operational knowledge across multiple divisions and various roles including Store Director, District Manager, Buyer, Business Transformation Team Member, Manager of Multi-Banner Strategy, Director of Regional Initiatives, Vice President of Retail Operations, and more recently as Senior Vice President of Retail Operations for Jewel-Osco.

Ken holds a BSBA in Management degree from Bryant University. He joined the Board of Directors at the Greater Boston Food Bank in June 2025.
